

LawRight
Access | Justice

Barristers making an impact as LawRight members

LawRight improves the lives of vulnerable people through strategic partnerships with pro bono lawyers.

Your membership enables LawRight to coordinate pro bono resources, matching your expertise with our vulnerable clients.

We provide pro bono barristers with instructing lawyers, assistance with disbursements, training and tailored opportunities.

Member Barristers support vulnerable clients with civil law matters by...

- Appearing in Court of Appeal, Supreme & District Courts, Federal Courts & Federal Circuit Courts, QCAT and other courts and tribunals
- Providing advice, including on prospects of success
- Guiding clients of LawRight's Court and Tribunal Services
- Advice and one-off representation at the Enforcement Hearing Duty Barrister Service
- Conducting Fair Work settlement conferences
- Conducting mediations

Each year 30,000 pro bono hours from LawRight members increases access to housing, income and legal rights and improves the health and wellbeing of vulnerable people.

Your impact counts.

Join or renew today at lawright.org.au or on (07) 3846 6317.

- First-year barristers – $20
- 2-3 years at the Bar – $75 per year
- 4-5 years at the Bar – $175 per year
- 6+ years at the Bar – $280 per year

About LawRight

LawRight is an independent, not-for-profit community legal centre. Our Patron is the Chief Justice of Queensland. The Bar Association of Queensland is a member of LawRight, and LawRight's management committee includes several barristers and a BAQ representative.

Fundraising and events

Barristers are strong supporters of LawRight through donations and attendance at our events such as Red Wine for Justice, Queensland Legal Walk and the Public Interest Address.